Black History is our history

February is Black History Month. It is important to realize that Black History is our history. While Black history has its own lane, it is not separate from our historical highway.

We have selected some videos to inform and help us reflect on how we contribute and participate. Please view the Dos & Don'ts for teachers; there are important considerations surfaced that will help us facilitate Black History Month in a responsible, informative and respectful manner.

Electronic PRIDE Tickets

Positive, Respect, Identity, Decide, Empathy

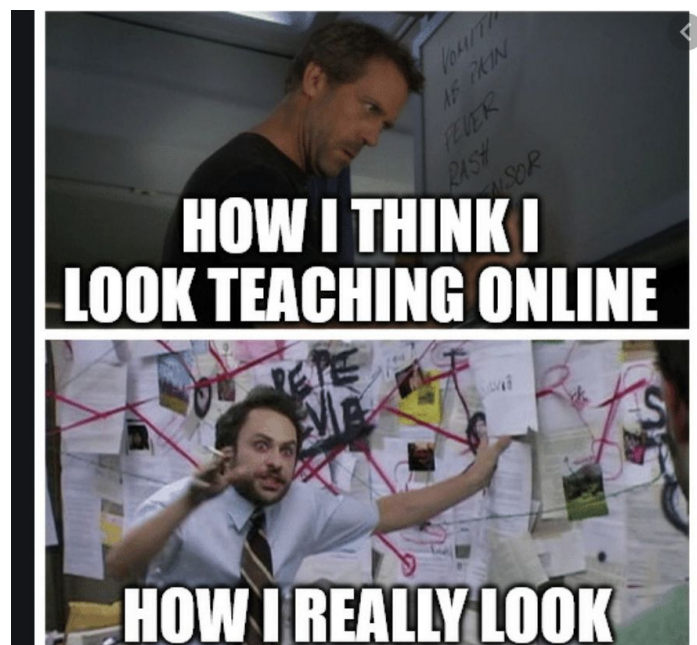

ALL students!!! It is time to DECIDE to show up to zoom classes, turn in homework, ask questions, talk to a friend about homework, study outside of class! This is the start of a NEW semester! Take steps NOW to make changes that will help improve your learning!

I like how you are always present and engaged, answering questions and telling me I'm muted when I'm talking.

Thank you for jumping right into the new semester with fantastic contributions!

Thanks for taking the extra time to figure out how to download the browser. Very much appreciated!

HJHS teachers are looking good AND doing a great job with DL! Keep it up in Semester 2!
