LO of the week from Mrs. Moran: Students will use a simulation to develop a model of electric fields.

WASC REMINDERS

WASC for students: There will be a slideshow to educate students on what WASC is, why it is important, and what the visit will look like.

WASC for parents: We will share the slideshow with parents via website, email, and at parent group meetings.

WASC information for staff:
We need to know how the school is addressing the critical areas of need and be able to speak to these areas in detail related to your work within each area.

As a staff we will continue to look at data and survey results to adjust our plan for 2020-2021 school year.

The critical areas of need are in the staff google classroom.

"What we're really trying to do as educators is learn—learn what students know so we can celebrate that while also learning where they need extra support."

PRIDE PROGRESS

YOU CAN TURN IN PRIDE TICKETS IN M1, C2, F1, COUNSELING, AND S10.

There were 9 PRIDE tickets given out this week.

Let's acknowledge the great behavior and spread the positivity on campus!

Growth Mind Set

Instead of: I can't seem to teach this student.. or: he needs to be assessed for special ed.

How about: I want to find out exactly what is getting in this student's way academically. They must be missing some essential skills somewhere.

Instead of: If the students had better attendance, they would do better in school.

How about: I want to create a school community where all students feel motivated to come to school and invest in their own learning.

We can ALL ALWAYS learn more or do better!

CULTURE & CLIMATE

CLIMATE OFFICE REMINDERS

Discipline is not something we do to kids, it's something we help them acquire!

Climate and Culture Moment: HMS has taken on the VAPE campaign! Look for posters and have students listen for the PSA's in the announcements! Safety Committee is also working on posters that we think will help students remember the Child Care Center is connected to us and "little eyes are watching" and "little ears can hear them." The hope is to minimize incidents around the child care center. Also coming Soon - Restorative Practices Information
